Township Officials Report- Supervisor - None

Clerk – None

Assessor – The office is working on the books waiting for the county to take them. Several Assessors' offices met with the new Chief County Assessment Officer. The meeting went well and Antioch Assessor is looking forward to the new relationship. The County sent out tax bills. Out of 300,000, 890 bills had a mistake. When the County accepts the Antioch books, the Assessor will send out blue sheets. Residents have 30 days to appeal. If you have recently purchased a new home for less than the assessed value, bring your closing statement to the Assessor's office. There are many scammers telling residents they can get them a rebate. There is a fee for this service. You can do it yourself for free. Please call the office

Highway Commissioner- Edwards Road is moving forward.

Old Business- Senior Committee - Trustee Davis- The senior summer picnic on June 6, had nice attendance. Bingo is July 2, 2019 at 9am.

Grants- Trustee Turner – The Township has received all 6 iPads, they need to be set up and programmed. The Chicago Bears Million Dollar giveaway was not for taxing bodies. Only non for profits were eligible for awards.
